CLAIMS 1-3 ARE PRESENTED FOR EXAMINATION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 19, 2004 has been entered.

Double Patenting

Claims 1-3 remain rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,403,641, already of record, for the reasons of record as maintained in the Advisory Action dated June 29, 2004.

Applicant's arguments have been carefully considered, but fail to persuade the Examiner of error.

In particular, applicant has argued that co-morbid conditions are separate and distinct from obesity. The Examiner cannot agree because from the very expression "co-morbid conditions associated with obesity" speaks to the contrary. That is, the term "co" is normally taken to mean "with or together" and the term associated is normally taken to mean "to be united in a relationship". Given this, it is clear that the claimed co-morbid conditions are not separate and distinct from obesity.

Applicant has posited "The first line, standard therapy is to treat the co-morbid condition(s) separately from the obesity using a different therapeutic from that used to treat the obesity." It is not, however, the obviousness or non-obviousness of the first line therapy that is at issue, but rather merely that of a therapeutic method. Applicants position here clearly does not establish that it would not have been obvious to employ a therapy for the co-morbid conditions associated with obesity which itself is a therapy for obesity itself. Because the co-morbid conditions and the obesity are associated and occur together, i.e., “co-morbid”, the skilled artisan would have appreciated that such conditions could be effectively treated if the very thing with which they are associated, i.e., obesity, is itself effectively treated. In the absence of obesity, which is the logical outcome of the treatment method of the patented claims, “co-morbid conditions associated with obesity” would also be effectively treated, because there would be no obesity with which such conditions to be either “co-morbid” or associated.

Applicant has also argued that the Examiner has provided no motivation for the skilled artisan to do what is being presently claimed. However, for the reasons of record and those above, the Examiner maintains that the presently claimed subject matter would have been obvious from the subject matter of the patented claims and the skilled artisan would have been motivated to do what applicant is presently claiming.

Finally, applicant has argued that the Examiner has improperly employed hindsight reconstruction in reaching the conclusion that the claimed subject matter would have been obvious from the subject matter of the patented claims. In response thereto, it is the Examiner’s position that it must be recognized that any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning. However, so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the claimed invention was made, and does not include knowledge gleaned only from the applicant’s disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper. See In re McLaughlin, 443 F.2d 1392, 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971).

Art Unit: 1614

For the above reason, the claims are deemed properly rejected and none are allowed.

All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

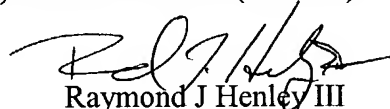

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
